Reverend Goff is truly a modern-day crusader for justice, and I am grateful for his valuable work in our community. I am pleased that the House of Representatives could have him lead us in such a powerful prayer.

CONGRATULATING J.R. UNITED INDUSTRIES AND COMPANY PRESIDENT SALO GROSFELD

(Ms. ROS-LEHTINEN asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute and to revise and extend her remarks.)

Ms. ROS-LEHTINEN. Mr. Speaker, I would like to congratulate J.R. United Industries and company president Salo Grosfeld for their involvement in an extraordinary back-to-school project.

Afghan Minister for Women's Affairs, Dr. Sima Samar, asked for help to send girls back to school in Afghanistan, for, you see, school uniforms are considered a luxury that few Afghan families can afford. But J.R. United, located in my congressional district, helped by providing sewing machines and fabrics through their commercial partners in Pakistan.

Salo Grosfeld and his company are giving children thousands of miles away something greater than just uniforms. They are giving them hope for a brighter future and a better life.

Please join me in congratulating Salo Grosfeld and J.R. United for their generosity to the children of Afghanistan. Thank you, Salo.

SPEAKING AGAINST CUT IN PAYMENTS IN LIEU OF TAXES PROGRAM

(Mr. UDALL of New Mexico asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute and to revise and extend his remarks.)

Mr. UDALL of New Mexico. Mr. Speaker, I rise today to speak out against the administration's 21 percent cut of the Payments in Lieu of Taxes Program.

Many of our western States have substantial Federal land within their borders. On the one hand, these lands provide many opportunities for all Americans. But for local counties who are financially strapped, Federal lands mean the loss of a tax base.

To deal with this issue fairly and so that the Federal Government is a good neighbor, we pay a portion of the lost tax revenue. This is called Payments in Lieu of Taxes. It is a good program that should be fully funded, although it never has been. By cutting this valuable program, the administration is turning its back on many western counties.

I urge my colleagues to reject this unwise and unsound cutback.

MAKE CHILD PORNOGRAPHY ILLEGAL

(Mr. FOLEY asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute and to revise and extend his remarks.)

Mr. FOLEY. Mr. Speaker, the United States Supreme Court ruling Tuesday on the Child Pornography Prevention Act drew strong reaction, mostly negative, regarding the High Court. However, the ruling did receive some support from some in the adult movie industry.

"We are extremely disappointed with this decision," said the American Center for Law and Justice. The Supreme Court clears the way for pornographers to use the first amendment as a shield and gives them a green light to engage in this kind of Internet activity."

I say whether in movies or photographs, it does not make a difference whether or not the person engaged in sex is actually a child. If it looks like a child, is said to be a child, pedophiles have found their fix and their search for true child pornography will only be enhanced.

Attorney General Ashcroft said the ruling makes prosecution of child pornographers immeasurably more difficult. He offered to work with Congress on new legislation that could withstand the Court's scrutiny.

Mr. Ashcroft, I join you today in hoping we can craft a bill that meets the fitness test of the Supreme Court so we can rule this to be an illegal activity.

RESTORE FOOD STAMPS FOR LEGAL PERMANENT RESIDENTS

(Mr. RODRIGUEZ asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute and to revise and extend his remarks.)

Mr. RODRIGUEZ. Mr. Speaker, despite the calls from President Bush for efforts to provide legal permanent residents access to Federal nutrition programs, the House conferees on the farm bill have refused to budge. Now we hear today that the gentleman from Colorado (Mr. TANCREDO) has an amendment to instruct on the farm bill on this particular item.

There are too many cases of legal immigrant children suffering from hunger right here in our own backyards. These are legal residents. Their parents work hard, they pay taxes, they serve our country, they play by the rules; but they are unable to qualify for food stamps if they find themselves in that situation.

The reality is, and I will appeal to the Republicans, that we have over 62,560 military people right now that are legal immigrants; and as we well know, we have a lot of people in the military that also qualify for food stamps. This amendment would disqualify them from being able to have access to food stamps.

So I make the appeal and ask that we look at what the administration has been saying, that we ought to be providing for those services.

CELEBRATING THE PRODUCTION OF NEVADA'S 50 MILLIONTH OUNCE OF GOLD

(Mr. GIBBONS asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute and to revise and extend his remarks.)

Mr. GIBBONS. Mr. Speaker, Nevada's nickname may be the Silver State, but our State is diverse and has a wealth of many minerals, including many precious metals like gold, silver and platinum. In fact, only two countries in the world are ahead of Nevada in total gold production, South Africa and Australia; and only those two locations have ever achieved the same milestone which Nevada celebrated this week, the production of the 50 millionth ounce of gold.

Let me put this achievement in perspective. If 50 million troy ounces of gold were viewed as cube, it would be approximately 14 feet 2 inches square and weigh about 1,714 tons.

This achievement was produced by the Carlin Trend, located about 10 miles south of Carlin, Nevada, which produces nearly 4 million ounces of gold annually, contributing $1.8 billion to America's economy every year.

Congratulations to the hard-working men and women of the Carlin Trend on this accomplishment, and thank you to the mining industry for producing the minerals which allow us to live in and enjoy the 21st century.

DEFENDING LEGAL IMMIGRANTS

(Ms. SOLIS asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute and to revise and extend her remarks.)

Ms. SOLIS. Mr. Speaker, I also rise in disappointment at the action that will take place today on the floor, and that is to instruct conferees on the farm bill to remove the provision of food stamps for legal immigrants.

We talk about legal immigrants. Let us really put a face to it. Let us look at who these people are. They serve in our wars; they are serving in the military. Many of them are grandparents, many are children. They are here legally. They are playing by the rules. Their families pay into the tax base.

The President has said he wants to honor them and give them food stamps; but his own party, the Republican Party, wants to take that away. We are sending mixed messages here, and I would hope we could unite around this whole concept of compassionate giving to people who earn their way here in the country.

I would ask that the conferees and everyone please take hold of this situation, address it, and help to feed the children, the hungry children, in our districts. Right now in my own district there are about 37 percent immigrant families. Of that, those kids do not have enough to have food on their table. They do not have cereal. They did not have a banana. They did not have milk today, like you and I may have had.

Let us make sure we do our best to defend those children.

FREE MARTIN AND GRACIA BURNHAM

(Mr. TIAHRT asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute and to revise and extend his remarks.)

Mr. TIAHRT. Mr. Speaker, today marks the 326th day that Martin and Gracia Burnham have been held captive by Muslim terrorists in the Philippines.

Mr. Speaker, millions of Americans paid their dues on Tax Day this week, but Martin and Gracia have been paying the price for being Americans for over 10 months now. The Nation they love, however, is prevented from rescuing her children.

Martin's parents, Paul and Oreta, are patriotic citizens. They pay their taxes without complaining and trust the government will carry out its responsibility to protect and defend our citizens, all this despite the continued captivity of their son and daughter-in-law.

I must admit, as a patriot, as a taxpayer, as a representative of this government of the United States, I am frustrated. I call upon President Arroyo and the Philippine Congress to allow the American military to rescue our fellow Americans who are being held hostage. I request Secretary Powell, Secretary Rumsfeld, and President Bush, do not take "no" for an answer.

Let us rescue these Americans. I believe we have the resources to rescue Martin and Gracia, and it is our government's duty to do so. As always, I ask you to join me in prayer for Martin and Gracia and their loved ones, that this nightmare may soon be over.

PROTECT THE CLEAN AIR ACT

(Ms. McCOLLUM asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute and to revise and extend her remarks.)

Ms. McCOLLUM. Mr. Speaker, the current administration is proposing a rollback of what has been called the centerpiece of our environmental agenda. Instead of fighting hard to protect the Clean Air Act, this administration wants to eliminate clean air programs that control new sources of pollution and regional haze.

What does this mean? It means that harmful emissions released from these old power plants will continue to cause asthma attacks and increase hospital visits. Haze will continue to blanket our cities and continue to spread out, obscuring views at our national parks and monuments. It also means that companies that own and operate our oldest and dirtiest coal-fired power plants can continue to escape strict pollution controls.

We can do better. Monday is Earth Day, a time to celebrate past progress we have made in cleaning up our environment while leading our Nation to a cleaner tomorrow. It is not the time to eliminate tools that can help us clean our air.

HAPPY 100TH ANNIVERSARY TO J.C. PENNEY

(Mr. SAM JOHNSON of Texas asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute and to revise and extend his remarks.)

Mr. SAM JOHNSON of Texas. Mr. Speaker, I rise today to celebrate a major milestone in the history of American business. This past Sunday, on April 14, J.C. Penney Company, whose Plano headquarters is located in my district, celebrated 100 years of serving American consumers.

J.C. Penney is a name that Americans know well, and most of us have shopped in a J.C. Penney store at some point. We have learned by experience to expect their superior value for our money. And a century of delivering on that promise has made J.C. Penney a trusted name among American retail institutions and hard-working Americans.

When James Cash Penney opened his first store on the Wyoming frontier 100 years ago, he had but one passion: to serve his customers to their complete satisfaction. That passion has been the enduring reason for his company's growth, survival and success, and also why J.C. Penney has helped millions of Americans raise the quality of their lives.

Trends may come and go; businesses like J.C. Penney, built on timeless values, endure.

I want to extend my sincere congratulations to the company for 100 years of performance.

CONGRESS MUST RESTORE FOOD STAMP BENEFITS TO LEGAL IM- MIGRANTS

(Mr. REYES asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute and to revise and extend his remarks.)

Mr. REYES. Mr. Speaker, later today the House will debate a motion to instruct conferees on the Farm Security Act that seeks to prevent the restoration of benefits to legal residents.

Well, I am appalled that this motion is offered, given the bipartisan support to restore food stamp benefits to legal permanent residents. I am, however, not surprised that there are some still in this House who continue their anti-immigrant, anti-Latino and anti-family campaign.

Let me repeat, Mr. Speaker. We are talking about benefits to legal residents; legal residents who come to this country from all parts of the world.

Earlier this year we welcomed the administration's proposal to extend eligibility to legal residents who have lived in the United States for 5 years. We supported this proposal because it was simple and straightforward. The Senate has included the administration's proposal in its version of the farm bill, but efforts continue in conference discussions to undermine a fair and simple restoration of benefits for legal residents.

These efforts clearly undermine President Bush's own proposal for restoration of food stamps.

I hope that this Congress, Mr. Speaker, does the right thing and restores food stamp benefits to legal residents, and I also today ask President Bush to do more to convince his party that legal permanent residents deserve these benefits. It is long overdue, it is time, and it is the right thing to do.

MURDERERS, NOT MARTYRS

(Mr. PITTS asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute and to revise and extend his remarks.)

Mr. PITTS. Mr. Speaker, tragically, Israelis and Palestinians are once again in a spiral of violence.

President Bush said recently that when a Palestinian girl kills herself in order to murder an Israeli girl of her own age, the future is dying. No boy or girl should ever have to die in a terrorist attack and no boy or girl should ever be misled by fanatics to go off on a suicide mission.

Mr. Speaker, too many Israelis and Palestinians have died and too many Palestinian kids have been turned into fanatics by the terrorists who have hijacked the Palestinian cause. As the President said, strapping a bomb around your waist and killing people is not an act of martyrdom, it is an act of murder.

Yesterday it was reported that the Saudi ambassador to Britain has written a lavish poem praising a young homicide bomber as "the bride of loftiness." He says, "The doors of heaven are opened for her."

Mr. Speaker, this is an outrage. Here is a leader, an ambassador no less, encouraging children to commit murder. There will be no peace in the Middle East until this kind of irresponsible rhetoric stops. The international community should condemn this kind of talk with a loud and united voice.

DEADLY NUCLEAR WASTE SHOULD NOT BE SHIPPED THROUGHOUT AMERICA

(Ms. BERKLEY asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute and to revise and extend her remarks.)

Ms. BERKLEY. Mr. Speaker, in the near future, the House will vote on
